INTRODUCTION

This notice is to help you understand how and why we collect your personal information and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your own information.

If you have any questions about this notice please talk to your Housemaster/mistress.

WHAT IS "PERSONAL INFORMATION"?

Personal information is information that the College holds about you and which identifies you.

This includes information such as your name, date of birth and address as well as things like exam results, medical details, unique pupil number and behaviour records. We will also hold information such as your religion or ethnic group for the purposes of providing effective pastoral care. CCTV, photos and video recordings of you are also personal information.

OUR LEGAL BASES FOR USING YOUR INFORMATION

This section contains information about the legal bases that we are relying on when handling your information.

The two tables below contain a general description of the different legal bases but we have also used a colour code system so that you can see which bases we are relying on for each of the purposes described at paragraphs 1 to 39 below.

Legitimate interests ("L")

This means that the College is using your information when this is necessary for the College's legitimate interests or someone else's legitimate interests. We won't rely on this basis when your interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests. Specifically, the College has a legitimate interest in:

- Providing you with an education and making sure that you are behaving properly.
- Complying with our agreement with your parents for you to be at the College.
- Looking after you, your classmates and our staff (e.g. your teachers).
- Keeping the College buildings safe.
- Making sure that the College is well managed and that we protect the College's reputation.
- Telling people about the College and what we do here e.g. we may use photographs of you in our prospectus, on our website or in our social media.

- Ensuring that all relevant legal obligations of the College are complied with (for example in relation to inspections).
- Using your information in connection with legal disputes.
- Improving the College e.g. if we want to raise money to build new buildings or to make sure that we are providing you and your classmates with a good schooling experience.

In addition your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interests of others. For example, we may use information about you when investigating a complaint made by one of your fellow pupils.

Legal obligation ("LO")

The College might need to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example, to report a concern about your wellbeing to Children's Services. We will also have to disclose your information to third parties such as the courts, the local authority or the police where legally obliged to do so.

Vital interests ("VI")

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt).

Performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or carrying out public tasks) ("PI")

This applies where what we are doing is for the benefit of people generally. The following are examples of where this applies:

- providing you and others with an education;
- safeguarding and promoting your welfare and the welfare of your classmates;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the College; and
- ensuring that we comply with all of our legal obligations.

The College must also comply with an additional condition where it processes special categories of personal information. These special categories include: personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation.

Substantial public interest ("SPI")

The College is allowed to use special categories of personal information where doing so is necessary in the substantial public interest. This is similar to "public interest" in the table above. For example, the College will use information about your health to look after you. We may also use other types of special category personal data about you to provide you with an education, to look after you and your classmates or when the College is inspected.

Employment and social protection and social security law ("ESP")

There will be times when the College needs to use your information because we are an employer (e.g. we employ your teachers). Also the College will use your information to comply with social protection law (e.g. to look after you) and social security laws. Social protection law is concerned with preventing, managing, and overcoming situations that adversely affect people's wellbeing.

Vital interests ("VI")

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt).

Legal claims ("LC")

We are allowed to use your information if this is necessary in relation to legal claims. For example, this allows us to share information with our legal advisors and insurers. This applies whenever sharing special category data is necessary in relation to legal claims.

Medical purposes ("MP")

This includes medical treatment and the management of healthcare services.

SENDING INFORMATION TO OTHER COUNTRIES

We will send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK. For example, we may store your information on cloud computer storage based overseas.

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/adeq-uacy-protection-personal-data-non-eu-countries_en

If the country that we wish to send your information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), it might not have the same level of protection as in the UK. We will conduct a risk assessment to determine whether there will be an adequate level of protection in place before we transfer the information. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Data Protection Adviser.

FOR HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION?

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after you. We will keep some information after you have left the College, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual, but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

Please see our Information and Records Retention Policy for more detailed information. This can be requested by contacting the College's Data Protection Adviser (dpa@cliftoncollege.com).

WHAT DECISIONS CAN YOU MAKE ABOUT YOUR INFORMATION?

From 25 May 2018 you will be able to make various decisions about your information. Some of these are new rights whilst others build on your existing rights. Your rights are as follows:

- Rectification: if information the College holds about you is incorrect you can ask us to correct it.
- Access: you can also ask what information we hold about you and be provided with a copy. This is commonly known as making a subject access request. We will also give you extra information, such as why we use this information about you, where it came from and what types of people we have sent it to.
- Deletion: you can ask us to delete the information that we hold about you in certain circumstances. For example, where we no longer need the information.
- Portability: you can request the transfer of your information to you or to a third party in a format that can be read by computer in certain circumstances.
- Restriction: our use of information about you may be restricted to simply storing it in some cases. For example, if you tell us that the information is inaccurate we can only use it for limited purposes while we check its accuracy.
- Object: you may object to us using your information where:
 - we are using it for direct marketing purposes;
 - the legal basis on which we are relying is either legitimate interests or performance of a task carried out in the public interest. Please see the section "Our legal bases for using your information" above;
 - we are using it for historical or scientific research purposes or archiving purposes. For example, we may keep photographs of your class for historical reasons.

Your Housemaster/mistress can give you more information about your data protection rights.
